

1. What was Columbus' incentive to travel west, eventually leading him to America?
2. Give at least three characteristics of the 13 colonies as a whole, and then explain the social, political, economic, and geographic differences within each of the three groups. Use as many details as possible.
3. What does a government without representation mean?
4. Define a radical point of view, mainly in the form of a newspaper or novel. What are some difficulties or challenges in voicing this point of view?
5. Why is Paul Revere remembered in US history?
6. Where did the "Shot Heard Around the World" occur?